

2012 Recruiting Class

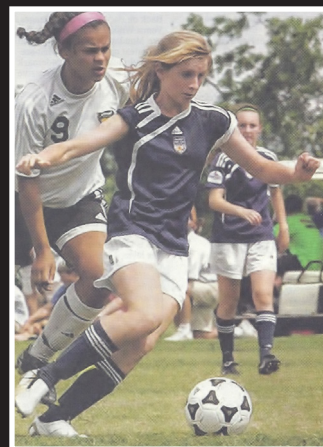

Amalie Anderdal
Høle, Norway

Jasmine Brewster
Bracknell, England

Kelsey Brouwer
Franklin, Tenn.

Tori Hawkins
Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Brianna Jasenak
Yorktown, Va.

Emily Jorgenson
Olathe, Kan.

Taylor Kirk
Olathe, Kan.

Kate Loye
Hamilton, New Zealand

Spencer Roberts
Sarnia, Ontario

Ashley Roth
Knoxville, Tenn.

Grace Summers
Carrollton, Texas

Kristina Turner
Lenoir City, Tenn.

Amalie Anderdal

Hometown: Høle, Norway

Club: Øvrevoll Hosle IL

High School Coach: Katrine Pedersen

Club Coach: Sverre Nordby

High School: Norges Toppidrettsgymnas

Position: Midfielder/Defender

Accomplishments:

- Played at the top Norwegian sport school
- Member of the Norwegian National Team, as well as the country's U20 and U17 squads
- Captured 2011 Norway Cup gold medal with club program
- Named Player of the Match for in a club contest against Asker

"Amalie is a very technical and versatile player. She has competed at a high level and has keen tactical awareness. Her vision and her ability to read the game will be an asset to our team."

-- MT head coach Aston Rhoden

Click here for video

Rhoden's extended comments
on 2012 signing class

Jasmine Brewster

Hometown: Bracknell, England

Club: Reading Women FC

High School Coach: Kelly Chambers

Club Coach: Phil Cousins

High School: John Madejski Academy

Position: Midfielder

Accomplishments:

- Trained in an England national camp on three occasions in three consecutive years from 2007-10
- Led her school to the 2012 British Colleges of Sport (BCS) Women's Elite Cup, a national championship
- Served as a vice captain and captain for John Madejski Academy in 2011-12
- Named the 2010-11 Manager's Player Award, voted upon by the team's manager as the most consistent and most impressive player
- Became the youngest player in her club's history to debut for the women's first team at age 16 in 2009-10
- Served as a team captain with her school program that reached the quarterfinals of the National Cup
- Squad finished second nationally in 2010 and made the league playoffs in consecutive years (2010, 2011)

"Jasmine is a very talented and versatile player. She's strong in the air and has very good passing range and vision. Her experience at a high level will be an asset to our young team. Jasmine will provide us with much flexibility in midfield and in the back."

-- MT head coach Aston Rhoden

Kelsey Brouwer

Hometown: Franklin, Tenn.

Club: Brentwood '94 Premier

High School Coach: Charles Westover

Club Coach: Brandy Gagliano

High School: Centennial

Position: Goalkeeper

Accomplishments:

- Garnered Tennessee Sports Writers Association 3A all-state honors as a senior in 2011
- Tabbed to the 2011 All-Midstate First Team
- Picked as the female winner of the John Maher Scholar Athlete for November 2011
- Named to the all-district and all-region teams her final campaign
- Tabbed the region's Most Valuable Defensive Player as a senior
- Recognized as the Goalie of the District for 2011
- Selected as the team MVP as a senior and sophomore and Most Improved Player her freshman season
- Served as the team captain as a senior
- Guided program to its first 10-win season in six years as a senior
- Posted a 0.70 goals-against average her final campaign, ranking fourth in the state
- Lettered all four years
- Also garnered a varsity letter in basketball
- Played for the state ODP team
- Received the Future Star Award for U17 age group in 2010-11 with her club program
- Led club squad to a Region III runner-up finish in 2011 and Region III Premier League title in 2010
- Club team was the 2008-11 Tennessee state champion and a member of the USYSL's National League from 2010-12
- Member of the National Honor Society as a junior and senior
- Ranked in the top 10 percent of her class
- Earned a spot on the Principal's List (at least 4.0 GPA) all four years
- Active with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes
- Member of the Mu Alpha Theta math honor society
- Volunteered at the Battle of Franklin reenactment, has worked with Graceworks Ministries and as a teacher aide and tutor after school
- Member of SELECT, a school group for special needs students

"Kelsey is a very technical keeper with good size and hands. She commands her box very well and is a good shot stopper. She will certainly make our goalkeeping position even stronger this year."

-- MT head coach Aston Rhoden

Click here for video

Rhoden's extended comments
on 2012 signing class

Tori Hawkins

Hometown: Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Club: Brentwood '94 Premier

High School Coach: Eric Shelton

Club Coach: Brandy Gagliano

High School: Siegel

Position: Midfielder/Forward

Accomplishments:

- Collected 2011 NSCAA Scholar All-American and All-South Region Awards
- Selected to the 2010 and 2011 All-State First Team
- Named to the All-Midstate First Team each of her last two seasons
- Earned all-region and all-district Offensive Player of the Year accolades as a junior and senior
- Picked as the Daily News Journal's Soccer MVP in 2010 and 2011 after collecting All-DNJ honors her first two years
- Winner of the 2010 and 2011 Golden Boot
- Chosen as an all-district first team member in 2009 and second team honoree in 2008
- Participated in the 2011 East-West All-Star Game
- Named as one of the Daily News Journal's Top 10 College Prospects for all sports
- Served as her team's captain as a senior
- Led her squad in goals and assists her final three years
- Was the only freshman starter on the 2008 3A state champion team that finished 17-4-1 (7-0 district)
- Participated in track her final two years, including being picked as the 2010 District Newcomer of the Year
- Selected as a Regional Player to Watch in 2011
- Led her club team to the last three state championships
- Squad has won the Regional Premier League since 2009 and been a member of the USYS National League since 2010
- Club team was a Region III finalist in 2011, semifinalist in 2010 and quarterfinalist in 2009
- Member of the state ODP team from 2004-10
- Will graduate as her class Valedictorian and ranked No. 1 out of 454 students
- Has been certified gifted for 10 years
- Member of the National Honor Society and Beta Club as a junior and senior
- Active with Student Council all four years, including serving as the ASB Secretary/Treasurer in 2011-12
- Also a member of Excalibur (2010, 2011, 2012), Key Club (2009, 2010) and Adventure Club (2012)
- Published in the Rutherford County Literary Collection from 2009-11

"Tori is a very skillful and durable forward. She has good work ethic and is a very good passer of the ball. Tori will be a great addition to what should be a potent attack."

-- MT head coach Aston Rhoden

Click here for video

Rhoden's extended comments
on 2012 signing class

Brianna Jasenak

Hometown: Yorktown, Va.

Club: Virginia Rush NIKE

High School Coach: Wendy Wilson

Club Coach: Vyburt Silcott

High School: Tabb

Position: Forward

Accomplishments:

- Chosen as a TopDrawerSoccer.com Player to Watch
- Earned all-state second team honors as a junior and Honorable Mention as a sophomore
- Voted to the all-region first team as a sophomore and junior and second team as a freshman
- Collected first team 2A All-Bay Rivers District Region I accolades all three years
- Tabbed a Daily Press All-Star First Team honoree as a sophomore and junior
- Named as the Daily Press' Player of the Week two times
- Picked as the April 5, 2009, Potomac Sports Wire Star of the Week as announced by HRVarsity.com
- Her high school squad's leading scorer with 61 career goals through her first three years
- Tallied four goals in a game three times
- Has started on varsity since her freshman season when she was picked as the team's Best Offensive Player
- A two-year member of the state ODP team
- Club team is part of the Elite Club National League
- Netted two goals and added a pair of assists in 2011
- Led club program to a first place result at the 2009-10 Disney Soccer ECNL Showcase in the Nike U16's Predator Division
- Club squad was a finalist in the 2010 Virginia State Cup at the U17 level
- Also lettered four years in field hockey and once in indoor track
- Earned Virginia 2A state Player of the Year accolades in field hockey as a junior and senior
- Participated in the AAU Field Hockey Junior Olympics in 2010 and the National Futures Program for two years
- Member of the National Honor Society and the High School Leadership Team
- Has garnered a 3.6 GPA and a place on the A/B Honor Roll

"Bri is a strong and fearless forward with great sense of timing in and around the box. She's a very capable goal scorer and will provide us with several different attacking options."

-- MT head coach Aston Rhoden

Click here for video

Rhoden's extended comments
on 2012 signing class

Emily Jorgenson

Hometown: Overland Park, Kan.

Club: KCFC Heat

High School Coach: Terry Hair

Club Coach: Gareth Pritchard

High School: East

Position: Midfielder/Defender

Accomplishments:

- Named as a Player to Watch by TopDrawerSoccer.com
- A three-time member of the All-Sunflower League First Team
- Earned first team honors as a forward (2011), midfielder (2010) and defense (2009)
- Netted 12 goals as a junior, including four games with multiple scores
- Served as her team's captain in 2011 and 2012
- Added an all-conference accolade for basketball in 2011
- Led club program to three state titles
- Club team was an ECNL national qualifier and region semifinalist
- Member of the All A Honor Roll

"Emily is a versatile and technical defender. She is strong on the tackle and good in the air. Her experience as a forward will make her a threat when she gets into the attack."

-- MT head coach Aston Rhoden

Click here for video

Rhoden's extended comments
on 2012 signing class

Taylor Kirk

Hometown: Olathe, Kan.

Club: KCFC Heat

High School Coach: Chris Graham

Club Coach: Gareth Pritchard

High School: Northwest

Position: Defender

Accomplishments:

- Collected All-Sunflower League Honorable Mention plaudits in 2011
- Led squad to the 2009 Olathe Northwest Regional Championship
- Member of NSCAA High School Team Academic Award honors in 2010
- Served as her team's captain her final two seasons
- Has started and lettered for soccer team all four years
- Named an ESPN Kansas 2012 Prospect with her club program
- Led club team to the 2008, 2010 and 2011 Kansas state crowns
- Club squad competed in the ECNL in 2010 and 2011
- Guided club team to ECNL national qualifying in 2011 and regional semifinalist in 2010
- Winner of the 2011 Wendy's High School Heisman for her high school
- Member of the National Honor Society
- Tabbed as a Kansas Honor Scholar as a part of the top 10 percent of her class
- Received a district academic honor
- Served as a peer mentor, link-crew leader and on the yearbook staff
- A member of the Straight A Honor Roll and winner of the Principal Academic Award since 2007
- Has studied in Advanced Placement classes

"Taylor is a dominant defender who reads the game very well. She has good pace and size, and an innate ability to consistently break down the opponents' attack."

-- MT head coach Aston Rhoden

Click here for video

Rhoden's extended comments
on 2012 signing class

Kate Loye

Hometown: Hamilton, New Zealand

Club: Claudelands Rovers

High School Coach: Andrew Ryan

Club Coach: Dave Edmondson

High School: St. Peter's Secondary School

Position: Midfielder

Accomplishments:

- Made her international debut one month shy of her 15th birthday
- Competed for her country during the 2010 FIFA U17 Women's World Cup in Trinidad and Tobago
- Scored her team's only goals in the World Cup matches against Venezuela and Spain
- Netted two goals in 2010 Oceania Football Confederation (OFC) U17 Women's Championship qualifying match against Tonga
- Served as a team captain during the OFC qualifying rounds
- Received 2008 and 2009 Player of the Year accolades with her club program and its runner-up Player of the Year plaudit in 2010 and 2011
- Played for Waikato Bay of Plenty in the National Women's League
- Tabbed the 2011 Lotto NRFL Women's League Player of the Year
- Named 2011 Junior Sportswoman of the Year at the Waipa Networks District Sports Awards
- Earned 2010 Waikato Secondary School Sportswoman of the Year honor
- Club team selected as 2010 Waikato Team of the Year after winning the National Women's Knockout
- Finished as the runner-up in the Premier Women's League with her club team in 2011

"Kate is a creative midfielder with great vision. Her ability to dictate the rhythm of play, get forward into the attack and to score goals will be great for us. She will give us great depth and flexibility in midfield."

-- MT head coach Aston Rhoden

Click here for video

Rhoden's extended comments
on 2012 signing class

Spencer Roberts

Hometown: Sarnia, Ontario

Club: London Gryphons

High School Coach: Julie Jarvas

Club Coach: Aaron Lauterbach

High School: Ecole Secondaire Franco Jeunesse

Position: Defender

Accomplishments:

- Led squad to silver medals at the 2010 and 2011 High School Provincial Championships
- Guided program to a runner-up finish at the 2010 USL Super-Y National Championships
- Ranked as the 2009 leading scorer at the OFSSA (Provincial Championships) and the second leading scorer for Lambton County High School soccer
- Became the youngest player to play in a USL W-League game at 14 years old in 2008
- Tabbed MVP of her high school team two times
- Trained in the Ontario Provincial Training Program
- Presented with the Gold Academic Award all three years
- Received the Academic Award of Excellence in 2007-08
- Served as a class representative as a senior
- Also ran cross country and played volleyball
- Was a regional qualifier in cross country

"Spencer is a strong defender capable of playing several positions in the back. Her ability to get forward will prove to be an asset for us. She works really hard and is often times assigned to track the opponent's best forward."

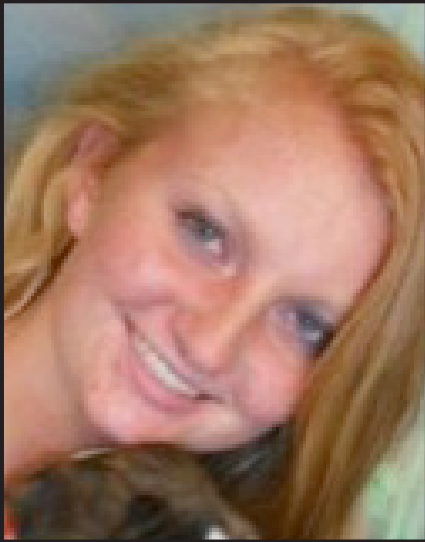

-- MT head coach Aston Rhoden

Click here for video

Rhoden's extended comments
on 2012 signing class

Ashley Roth

Hometown: Knoxville, Tenn.

Club: FC Alliance '95 Black

High School Coach: Eric Turner

Club Coach: Josh Gray

High School: Bearden

Position: Midfielder

Accomplishments:

- Led program to back-to-back state quarterfinal appearances in 2010 and 2011
- Also played for Darlington Soccer Academy (Rome, Ga.)
- Member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes
- Guided club team to the Tennessee state finals three times, including the 2011 state championship
- Participated with the Tennessee ODP program

"Ashley is very composed on the ball and is a good possession player. She has a good understanding of the game and is a very good playmaker from deeper positions. Her ability to play different places in midfield will provide us with additional depth and flexibility."

-- MT head coach Aston Rhoden

Click here for video

Rhoden's extended comments
on 2012 signing class

Grace Summers

Hometown: Carrollton, Texas

Club: D'Feeters

High School Coach: Dallas Lusk

Club Coach: Kim Colon

High School: Prince of Peace Christian School

Position: Forward

Accomplishments:

- Named a TopDrawerSoccer.com Player to Watch
- Tabbed as an all-state first team selection in 2010 and 2011 and Honorable Mention in 2009
- Voted the District MVP in the last two years
- Earned all-district first team accolades in 2009, 2010 and 2011
- Garnered all-district tournament honors in 2009, 2010 and 2011
- Netted a single-season goals record with 34
- Also played basketball
- Played club soccer in the Elite Club National League
- Guided club program to the 2008 Southeast Region title and third-place national championship result
- Member of the National Honor Society
- Posted a 3.42 GPA as a member of the Honor Roll

"Grace is a simply a finisher. She has good positional sense in and around the box and is very capable in the air. Her ability to beat defenders with pace and on the dribble will add more potency to our attack."

-- MT head coach Aston Rhoden

Click here for video

Rhoden's extended comments
on 2012 signing class

Kristina Turner

Hometown: Lenoir City, Tenn.

Club: FC Alliance '95 Black

High School Coach: Gary Rigatti

Club Coach: Josh Gray

High School: Lenoir City

Position: Midfielder/Defender

Accomplishments:

- Recognized as a 2011 Prep Xtra All-State Second Team honoree by the Knoxville News-Sentinel
- Holds school record for career assists, including six as a junior
- Tallied a hat trick in her junior campaign season opener against Loudon High
- Finished junior campaign with 11 goals
- Named to the 2010 and 2011 All-Region 2-3A team
- Picked as a District 4-3A squad choice in 2008, 2010 and 2011
- Earned 2008 Freshman of the Year plaudits
- Guided club team to the 2011 Tennessee state championship in 2011 and as a finalist in from 2008-10
- Club program has been a member of the Region III Premier League since 2008
- Member of the National Honor Society and Mu Alpha Theta math honor society
- Also a member of HOSA and the Academic Incentive Program Gold Star program

"Kristina is a versatile defender capable of playing the midfield. She is a strong defender with great technical ability and good composure on the ball. Her ability to score goals will allow us to be even more flexible in the back and midfield."

-- MT head coach Aston Rhoden

Click here for video

Rhoden's extended comments
on 2012 signing class

